

~~SECRET~~

1. Percentage of FDD manpower employed to service the DD/P, DD/I, and the IAC:

2. Types of service rendered fall into the broad categories of reporting against specific requirements for information; translation service; and loan of personnel.

General examples follow:

For the DD/I

Exploitation for specific information from covert documents (East-West trade information from a German [redacted] document; general economic information from FBI documents).

25X1A

Documentary research for specific NIS sections or in support of specific projects (Soviet radiowave propagation research; computation of national and sectional railway turnaround time -- China; glossary of GDR railway terminology).

Loan of personnel for rapid selection and exploitation of sensitive microfilm and document collections (trade intercepts between Hungary and Pakistan).

Monitoring of tape recordings of foreign-language broadcasts for intelligibility (broadcasts in Hungarian, Polish, and Russian of material picked up behind the curtain monitored for effects of jamming).

Viewing and interpretation of foreign-language films for Graphics Register.

Reverse translation (instruction for use of secret ink -- English to Greek; radio operation and instructions in sabotage -- English, Polish, Czech, and German).

Translation service ("Soviet Navigation Radar Station 'Neptun'"; "Textbook on Government Budget Accounting Communist China"; "Actual State of Railways Communist China and Trends Various Constructions."

Review of world press for comments on specific events (reaction to earth satellite program).

For the IAC

Review and comment on preliminary drafts of MIS sections (Yugoslavia, Rumania, and Czechoslovakia political and economic sections for State Department).

Exploitation of documents in cases where IAC components lack linguistic capabilities (press censorship in Czechoslovakia -- in Hungarian; handwritten Chinese documents concerning Chinese Communist special agents Corps, organization of liberation army, reorganization of Suiynan province, etc.).

Translation service ("Airborne Frogmen" from Egyptian naval publication; Kabul telephone directory; Afghan municipality law; Greek Affidavit; article on US servicemen in Greece.

SECRET

Reverse translation (certificate of transfer of USS MINGO to the Japanese--English to Japanese; Pointee-Talkee material -- English to Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Thai, etc.; material for the "Atoms for Peace" conference from English to French, Spanish and Russian).

Consultation with IAC analysts to furnish advice on area, subject, documents or linguistic problems.

Loan of personnel (Vietnamese specialist to advise on Vietnamese language problems connected with US takeover of military training in Vietnam; teaching of Mongolian in NSA).

SECRET